

Microfinance Centre Membership Information

MISSION

The Microfinance Centre is the membership-based network for transformation through social finance.

Our mission is to empower people and communities through social finance. We seek to make financial services work for all people and communities, especially the underserved and excluded by building on the achievements of the social finance sector: microfinance, financial cooperative systems and others. We seek to inspire new partnerships with technology providers to improve products, outreach and scale and to charter innovative ways of accessing and using finance.

Our vision is for an industry that is centered around creating benefits for clients and excels at delivering responsible financial services.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY

All organisations, institutions, NGOs, programs whose missions are consistent with the Microfinance Centre's mission statement and who agree to be bound by the Microfinance Centre Association Principles are eligible for membership.
